The Biggest, Brightest & Best Bargain Bookshops in Britain

Bookstore Brierlow Bar and Bookstore at Oakmere are the country's largest bargain bookshops, offering incredible breadth and depth of titles and subject areas for both general and specialist book lovers.

20,000 different titles in stock at any given time, covering over 50 category classifications including archaeology, architecture, the arts, biography, books for children, classics, cookery, countryside, crafts, entertainment, fiction (of all genres), gardening, history, local subjects, maps, military, music, nature, outdoor pursuits, philosophy, poetry, reference, religion, science, sport, transport, travel, and many, many more. 95% of stock is on sale at half price, and in most cases even less!

Knowledgeable, friendly staff are on hand at all times, in a spacious, relaxing atmosphere in which you can browse at leisure. A variety of hot and cold drinks are also available, along with a small selection of snacks and refreshments.

Both stores feature large free car parks with picnic tables. Attractive countryside is nearby, with Bookstore at Oakmere being located just a stone's throw away from Delamere Forest and a number of local visitor attractions. Bookstore Brierlow Bar is a short distance from the rivers Dove and Manifold and the attractive scenery offered by the beautiful Peak District countryside.

National Book Tokens are available and accepted at both stores
